Level Placement

Level placement is determined by ABT Owner & School Director, Sally Hart, and Artistic Director, Veronica Piller. When placing students, we consider age, experience, maturity, physical ability, and attendance. Your teachers carefully consider which level will best suit each student as we believe that proper placement is crucial to the growth, success, and experience of the dancer and their classmates. We consider the entire class dynamic in order to create a balanced environment where the students can thrive. For more information go to www.abtdance.org/classes/level-placement.
